

2019

JANUARY

Civilian Military Travelers Training

DATE: January 10–11, 2019

LOCATION: Washington, DC

ATTENDEES: Civilian foodservice professionals receive training on how to properly evaluate military dining facilities for food quality, food safety, cost effectiveness and general operating procedures.

MARCH

Ted J. Balestreri Leadership Classic

DATE: March 6–9, 2019

LOCATION: Pebble Beach, CA

ATTENDEES: More than 100 senior-level executives and suppliers attend this exciting networking event, golf tournament, and live auction for that benefits the NRAEF's ProStart and Scholarship programs.

Restaurant Industry Awards Gala

DATE: March 27, 2019

LOCATION: Washington, DC

ATTENDEES: Join more than 400 industry leaders, National Restaurant Association Board members, NRAEF Trustees, and state restaurant associations to honor those who give back to their communities, embody the American dream, and exemplify extraordinary achievement in the restaurant industry.

MAY

National ProStart Invitational

DATE: May 8–10, 2019

LOCATION: Washington, DC

ATTENDEES: More than 400 high school students compete in a culinary and restaurant management competition in hopes of earning more than $200,000 in available scholarships. Open to industry leaders, NRAEF Trustees, state restaurant associations, family and friends. The NRAEF will also celebrate the ProStart Educators of Excellence at this year's Invitational.

Military Foodservice Awards Dinner

DATE: May 17, 2019

LOCATION: Chicago, IL

ATTENDEES: More than 600 of the Foundation's supporting businesses, key industry leaders, senior military officials, National Restaurant Association Board members and NRAEF Trustees gather together to honor excellence in U.S. military foodservice.

Apprenticeship Accelerator Meeting

DATE: May 17, 2019

LOCATION: Chicago, IL

ATTENDEES: More than 50 industry employers, members of the Department of Labor, and community college representatives come together to learn more about the hospitality sector registered apprenticeship program and share program updates, panel discussions and best practices.

Military Foodservice Training Program

DATE: May 17–19, 2019

LOCATION: Chicago, IL

ATTENDEES: Award recipients from all branches of the military receive restaurant management training with demonstrations from industry experts, participate in breakout sessions and in-classroom learning exercises.

National Restaurant Association Show

DATE: May 18–21, 2019

LOCATION: Chicago, IL

ATTENDEES: More than 66,000 foodservice professionals from around the world discover the latest innovations in food and beverage and network at the Association's annual four-day tradeshow.

JUNE–JULY

Summer Institutes Program

DATE: June–July, 2019

LOCATION: Trainings occur all across the nation

ATTENDEES: Foodservice and culinary educators working towards the NRAEF Certified Secondary Foodservice Educator certification attend these weeklong workshops delivered by industry experts.